Pricing

Because each of our invitation suites is customized specifically for each couple it is impossible to adequately list all of our available price options. We take pride in being able to work within ANY budget and we treat each event as if it is our own.

With respect to our letterpress and couture collections, we do have a price list available for each individual suite seen on our website. Please e-mail (info@plumblossompress.com) or call and we'll send you over a price list or provide you with an individualized price quote within 24 hours.
